World Book Day 6th March 2025

We will be celebrating 'World Book Day' but we are not asking the children to dress up this year. This year, we will be sending a paper hat home for children to decorate, linked to their favourite book. There will be a prize for each class. The children will participate in a range of reading for pleasure activities during the day. Book tokens will also be sent home.

Thank you to everyone who supported our NSPCC Number Fun day. We raised a fantastic £233.85!
